Neural Filters

- Portrait Pro, Portrait Ai and the likes beware!

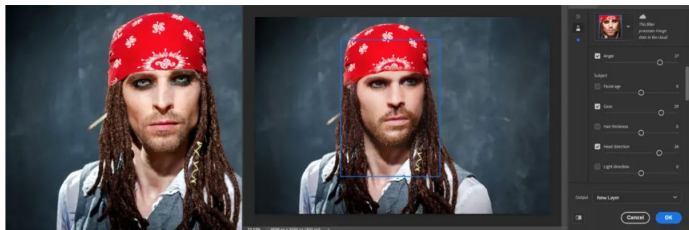

Neural Filters

- Change the depth and warmth of just your background with two sliders

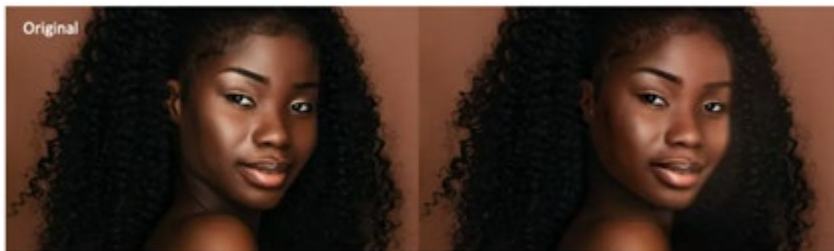

Neural Filters

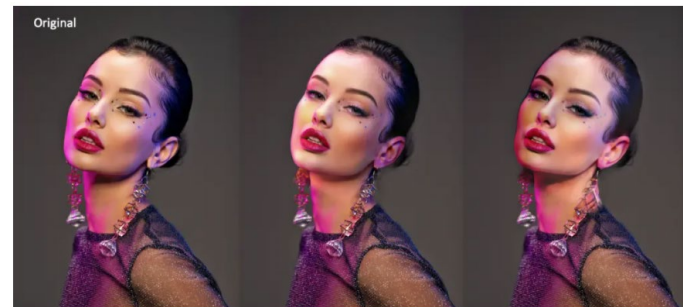

- Head Position, gaze direction, light direction...

turned the pirate's head and eyes to the right with the head and gaze sliders and pumped up the anger slider a bit, which produced a subtle snarl.

shifted the light direction slider to the right

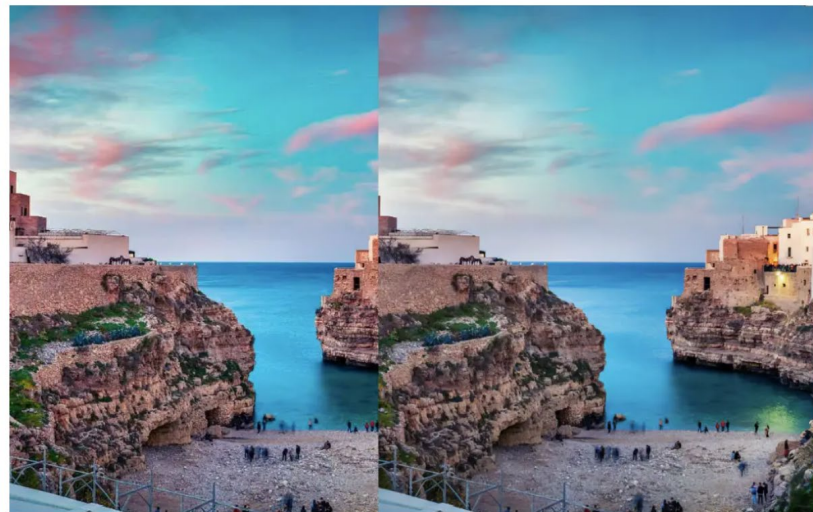

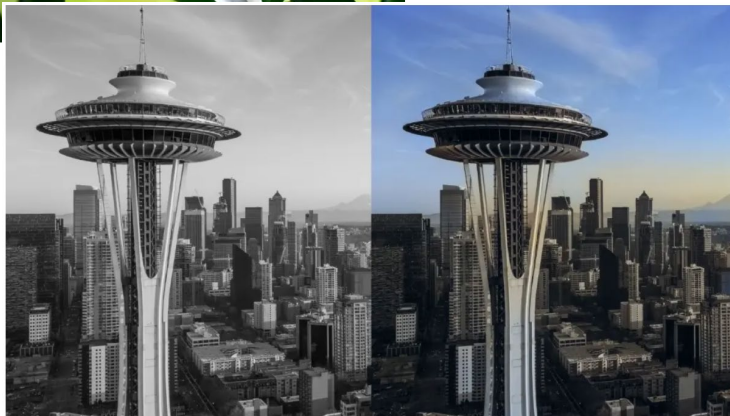

the light direction slider. Look at her cheek, forehead and chin. In the middle image I moved the light source to the left. In the far right image I moved the light direction slider to the right. I might want to reduce the yellow cast on her left cheek and a few other artifacts by brushing on the non-destructive mask that is produced in Photoshop when you use Neural Filters.

Neural Filters

- Style Transfer, Colorize, JPEG improvements

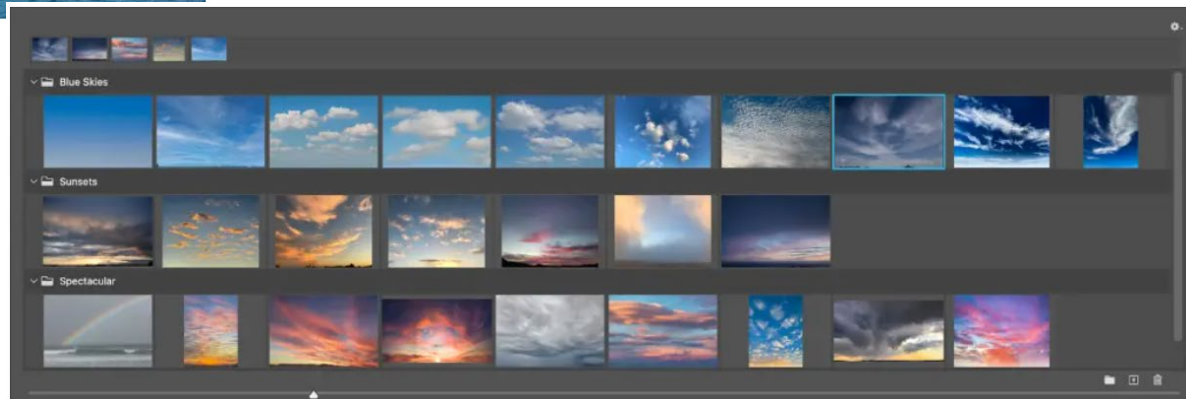

Below is a before and after of JPEG Artifacts Removal (note the artifacts in the clouds):

Sky Replacement

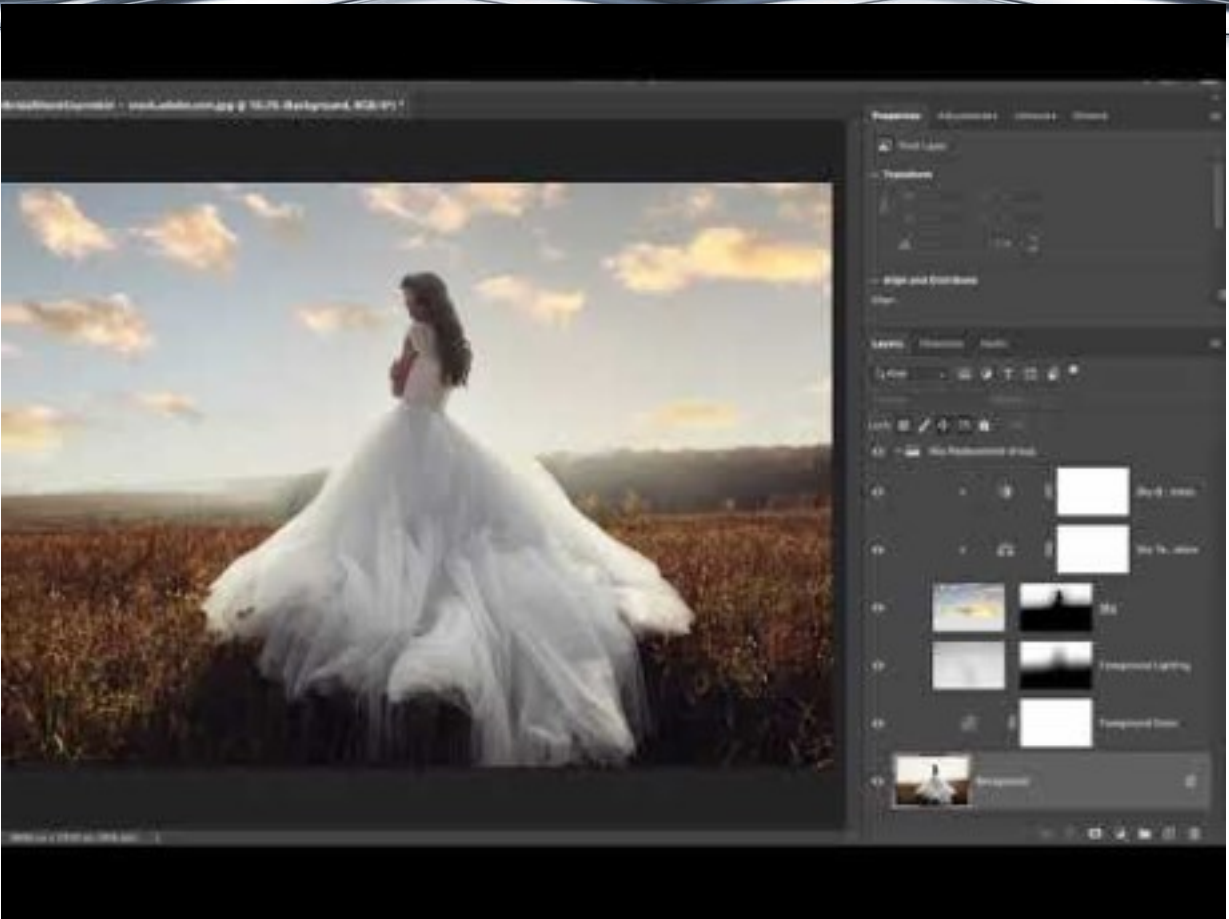

- Easy, uncomplicated, one-click sky replacement
- Alternative Skies in Adobe's Cloud

Sky Replacement

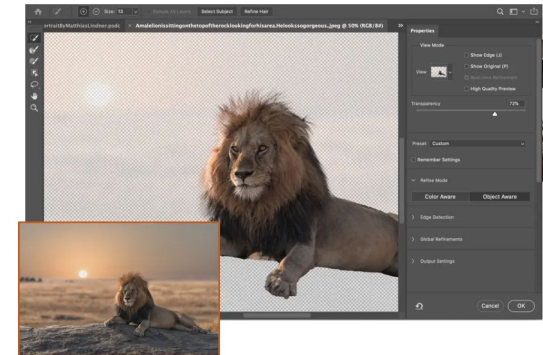

Intelligent Refine Edge

• Refine Hair

- “It seeks out the people in your selection and automatically refines the selection of their hair. It’s as if you had grabbed the Refine Edge brush and done the strokes yourself.”

• Object Aware Refine Mode

- “It’s always been difficult to precisely select hair and other fine elements of an image, particularly when the foreground and background are similar in color or hard to differentiate like the image above. Now you can click on the Object Aware button to set the Refine Edge mode to make those selections even better, even faster”

Reset Smart Objects

- Another enhancement to the Properties Panel that allows you to completely reset a Smart Object to its original state. Any rotations, transforms or warps are detected and a 'Reset' button will restore it.

Faster, Easier to Use Plugins

After the very first Photoshop Virtual Summit ended in April, the most common question I received was "when is the next Summit?"

Well, I'm thrilled to announce that the Photoshop Virtual Summit II will be on November 9 - 13, 2020. And registration is now open.

November 9 - 13, 2020.

20 expert instructors teaching 40 classes - over 30 hours of content! And you can watch it for free!

We've got a great line-up of instructors for you including Ben Willmore, Colin Smith, Matt Kloskowski, Lisa Carney, Glyn Dewis, Corey Barker, Blake Rudis, Kristina Sherk, Mark Heaps, Sebastian Michaels and many more. The list of classes is equally amazing - I can't wait to share these classes with you.

All classes are free to watch for a 48 period once they go live, and there's an optional VIP Pass available for purchase that gives you lifetime access to the recordings of all classes, along with audio recordings, instruct
